

Student Financial Aid: A Guide to Selected Resources

This guide is intended to assist Owen Library users searching for information about scholarships, loans, fellowships and grants. It is a guide to selected resources on the topic and not intended to be comprehensive.

Print Resources

The College Blue Book	Reference LA226 .C685
Volume 5 is devoted to information on scholarships, fellowships, grants and loans.
Financial Aid for African Americans	Reference LB2338 .F5643
Get Free Cash for College 2008	Reference LB2337.4 .T36 2007
Paying for College Without Going Broke	Reference LB2337.4 .C436 2006
Peterson's College Money Handbook	Reference LB2337.2 .C65
Scholarships, Fellowships, and Loans	Reference LB2338 .S35 2008
Scholarships, Grants & Prizes	Reference LB2337.4.P475

Web Resources

Career Guidance and Paying for Education – Mapping Your Future

<http://mappingyourfuture.org/>

Includes a financial aid calendar and scholarship resources. Also has tips for success in college and information to assist individuals in choosing a career and prepping for the future.

College Board

http://apps.collegeboard.com/cbsearch_ss/welcome.jsp

Includes information on planning for and finding a college. Also has an extensive Scholarships & Aid section, which includes tips on avoiding scholarship scams.

FinAid! The Smart Student Guide to Financial Aid.

<http://finaid.org/>

Provides an annotated list of links to resources about student financial aid. Also offer free searches for scholarships.

Financial Aid Search Through the Web

<http://fastweb.com/>

Scholarship search engine available free to users, with access to information on more than 400,000 U.S. scholarships, fellowships, internships, grants, and loans. Users sets up profile and mailbox. Database will search and send user scholarship information which fits profile.

Student Aid on the Web

<http://studentaid.ed.gov/>

Source of student financial aid information from the U.S. Department of Education.